VAGANKOVO CEMETERY

Address: 15, Sergeya Makeeva Street

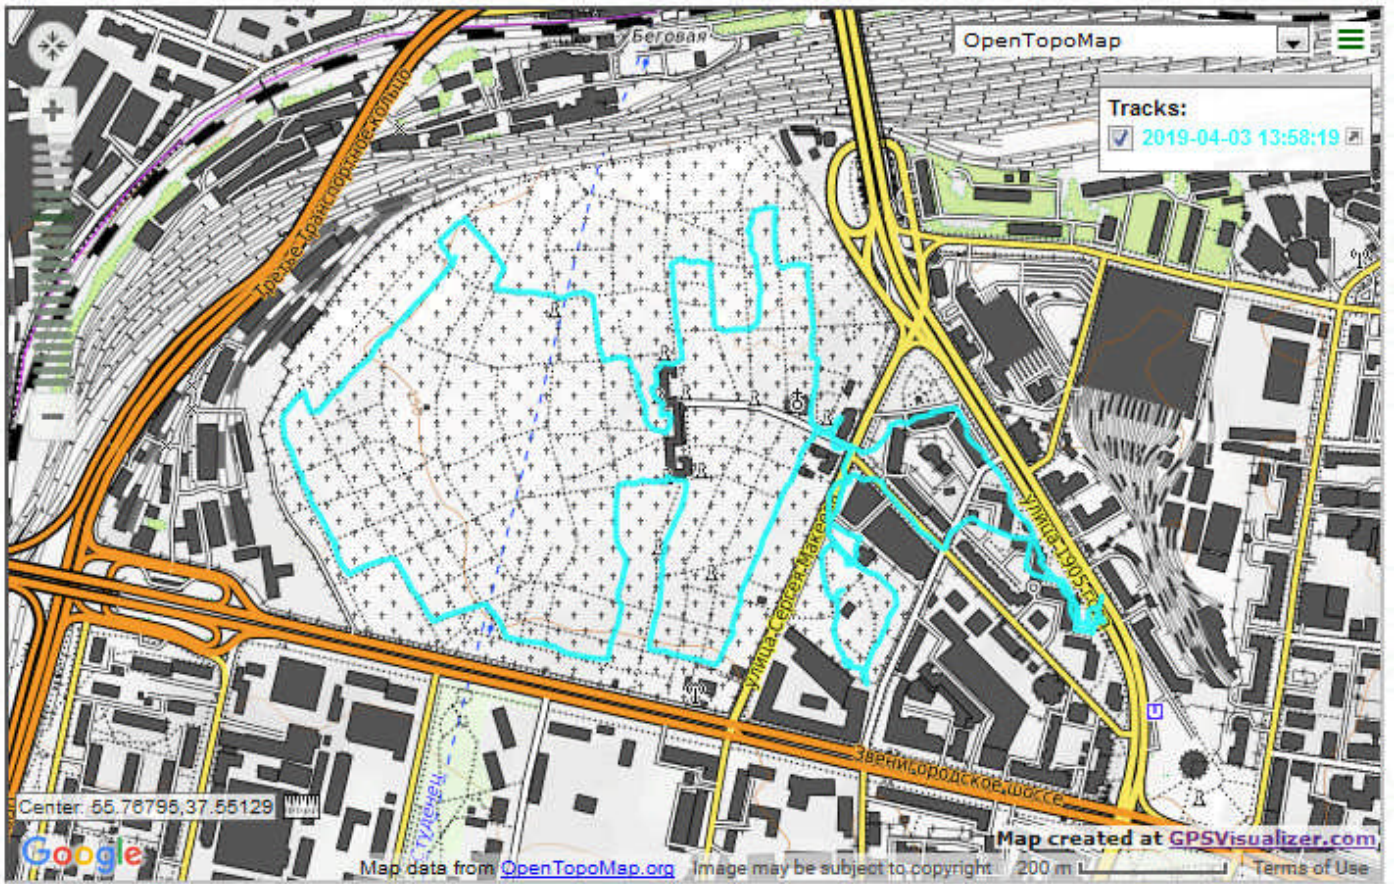

The cemetery emerged in 1771 near the village of Novoye Vagankovo, which has long since disappeared. It has become the final resting place of many renowned Soviet people. Of special interest to the general public are the graves of cultural figures from Soviet times as well as more recently. These include Sergei Yesenin (1895–1925), Vladimir Vysotsky (1938–1980), Bulat Okudzhava (1924–1997), writers Vasily Aksyonov (1932–2009), Grigori Gorin (1940–2000), singer Igor Talkov (1956–1991), painter Vasily Surikov (1848–1916), architect Fyodor Schechtel (1859–1926), actors Vitaly Solomin (1941–2002) and Aleksandr Abdulov (1953–2008). The Vagankovo Armenian Cemetery featuring many interesting monuments (12, Sergeya Makeeva Street) is a stone's throw from the Vagankovo Cemetery.
